Join the Brunswick Downtown Association as we welcome Tim Sample. Tim will speak about his career as “New England’s premier native humorist”, his thoughts behind Maine-based humor, and the power of laughter.

ABOUT

Tim Sample was born and raised in Maine and has never lived (or for that matter wanted to live) anywhere other than the Pine Tree State. His first album of downeast humor was recorded in 1979. Tim is the author of “How to Talk Yankee” the Maine classic, “Saturday Night at Moody’s Diner” and has written and / or illustrated more than a dozen books.

Tim’s national TV appearances include The Today Show and Good Morning America, and he has narrated award-winning films and books on tape, including Robert McCloskey’s children’s classic Bert Dow Deep Water Man and Stephen King’s The Sun Dog.
